Your Guide to the arts, family activities, and special events. Plus, highlighted restaurants, shops, and attractions that all have something special to offer

Family Friendly

Whale watching was developed in San Pedro, it is said, by the late renown John Olguin, founder of Cabrillo Marine Aquarium. This is the time of year that Pacific gray whales make the long journey from Alaska to Baja California. And there are other species of whales to be seen, as well.

And the tradition continues with Cabrillo Whalewatch's daily voyages out of ports from the South Bay to Long Beach. It runs daily through April 15.

These are the best whale watching cruises because they have Whalewatch naturalists on board. These two- to three-hour boat trips are the way to see the whales in nature.

For group reservations, call 310-548-7770 and for information about daily departures and group cruises, visit www.CabrilloMarineAquarium.org.

Nightlife

Extend the evening every Saturday with late night music at San Pedro Brewing Company, 331 W. 6th Street in Historic Downtown San Pedro. Live bands, hot DJs, or the BrewCo's own jukebox, along with friendly people and the very best locally-brewed beer, makes this a great place. Open until 1 a.m. Call them at 310-514-3416 or check the website at www.SanPedroBrewing.com for the schedule of upcoming fun.

Music, music, and more music. During the First Thursday Art Walk every month, The Whale & Ale British Restaurant and Pub hosts The New Whalers, a hot Dixieland band. On Fridays it's The Paul Gormley Trio. These great musicians play all kinds of traditional jazz for your dining and drinking pleasure. On Saturday evenings, Randy Coleman entertains with hits influenced by the big names. He's a Southern California favorite. The Whale & Ale British Restaurant and Pub is at 327 W. 7th Street, Downtown San Pedro. Call for reservations and information 310-832-0363 or visit the website at www.WholeAndAle.com.

Looking for a real San Pedro experience? Drop in to Godmother's Saloon at 300 W. 7th Street. Godmother's is a friendly old-time full bar with lots of entertainment. The drinks are good and the company is better.

San Pedro & Peninsula

Visitor

Volume 6, Number 4 March 2020

Editor

San Pedro & Peninsula Visitor is published by Visit San Pedro, the independent tourism authority serving San Pedro, the Los Angeles Harbor and Palos Verdes Peninsula communities, and Catalina Island. Visit San Pedro is a division of the Southern California Education, Tourism, and Cultural Organization, a tax-exempt 501(c)3 organization (EIN 81-5144415).

Another great family activity sponsored by Cabrillo Marine Aquarium is its weekend tidepool walks. Marine educators lead tours of the Pt. Fermin tidepools with lots of marine life in them. The event starts with a very informative slide show in the John M. Olguin Auditorium at the aquarium. Then a naturalist takes participants out among the rocks.

It's advisable to wear shoes that won't slip on the rocks and dress appropriately for the weather.

This month the tidepool walks will take place on Saturday, March 7 from 12:30-2 p.m., on Sunday, March 8 beginning at 2:30 p.m., and in Spanish beginning at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 21 beginning at 1 p.m., and on Sunday, March 22 beginning at 2 p.m.

The aquarium is at 3720 Stephen M. White Drive, Cabrillo Beach along the San Pedro Waterfront. For information, call 310-548-7562 or go online to www.CabrilloMarineAquarium.org.

The Arts

Enjoy the arts on the First Thursday Art Walk in Downtown San Pedro. This month it's on March 5. It all begins about 6 and the galleries, studios, shops, and restaurants are open. The event takes place between 4th and 9th Streets and Palos Verdes Street and Pacific Avenue. You'll be able to meet artists and find specials in many of the dining establishments. There's live music at the corner of 6th and Mesa Streets and a free guided art walk tour that begins at the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, 390 W. 7th Street. The Grand Annex at 434 W. 6th Street will offer an open mic night. The Whale & Ale British Restaurant and Pub will feature The New Whalers, a five-piece New Orleans jazz band. Get the latest information at www.1stThursday.com.

Don't be surprised if you're very much entertained at Little Fish Theatre's Improv Night on Sunday, March 15 beginning at 7. Members of the Little Fish company will take on the challenge of making you laugh. It's fast-paced improvised comedy similar to the television program "Whose Line Is it Anyway?" It's at Little Fish Theatre, 777 S. Centre Street in Downtown San Pedro. Call the box office for tickets at 424-203-4707 or go online to www.LittleFishTheatre.org. It's just $25.

The Time Machine

The Banning Museum's annual Wisteria Regale always brings history to life. And this year's gala on Saturday, March 28 continues the tradition. The theme is "The Time Machine," based on the H.G. Wells novel of time travel. The event benefits the continued preservation of the wonderful Banning mansion that was built by Phineas Banning, the father of Los Angeles Harbor, in the midst of the U.S. Civil War. The event will feature dinner, a silent auction, live entertainment, a hosted bar, and the presentation of the Wisteria Scholarship. Steampunk or Victorian fashions are optional but very appropriate. The event is at the Banning Museum, 401 E. M Street in Wilmington. Call 310-548-2005 or visit www.BanningMuseum.org for tickets, which are $150.

Fashion You'll Love

You know you'll always find something to love at Ms. Alexander. Carol Alexander offers an ever-changing inventory of great fashion for women of all ages. Whether you're going looking for something for work, everyday wear, relaxation, fancy dress, or going on a cruise, she has the selection and the prices women love. And every piece is of the highest quality, which means you get great value. Jeans in sizes 1 to 22, jewelry, and great gifts for any occasion. A great spot where you'll feel comfortable shopping and get personal attention.

Ms. Alexander women's fashions, 479 W. 6th Street, Downtown. 310-953-6110, www.MsAlexander.net.

Authentic Mexican Food and Great Vegan Choices

You might think of Mexican food as being heavy on the meat, but Conrad's Mexican Grill is ready to change your mind. It does have great choices with meat. And it also has one of the biggest vegan menus in town—and certainly the biggest selection of vegan Mexican food.

You'll want to try the appetizers. Like the queso fundido that's melted cheese with poblanos and lots more. Or the squash empanaditas. These are corn dough empanadas stuffed with zucchini squash blossom and topped with avocado tomatillo sauce and queso fresca. There's also authentic guacamole, plantains, and much more. One of the favorites is Mexican street corn.

Breakfast is served every day until noon and you can choose from chilaquiles, scrambles, wonderful pancakes, breakfast burritos, and omelets.

Lunch and dinner includes salads, sandwiches, and many entrée choices.

The tacos are known throughout the area because of selections like sriracha shrimp, Ensenada fish, grilled chicken, a great carnitas, and some of the best barbacoa around.

Burritos are right there with the tacos in quality and flavors. They're big. Very big. You won't go away hungry with one of these.

For an entrée, try a chili relleno. Or a chile relleno burrito. The enchiladas are wonderful with lots of fresh flavors.

And for something really different and special order the lomo saltado. It's seared beef tenderloin served with tomato, onion, and ranchera sauce, all tossed with French fries and cilantro. Don't forget to try the seafood, though.

And with all those choices—each one as good as the next—you'll be wanting to go back again and again.

Conrad's Mexican Grill is at 376 W. 6th Street in Downtown San Pedro. The phone is 424-264-5452 and you can order online at www.ConradsMexicanGrill.com.

Welcome Cruise Passengers

Going on a cruise? About to take a cruise? Just got off a cruise?

There is plenty to see and do in the area and San Pedro, home to the Port of Los Angeles and its World Cruise Terminal, is a great place to stay if you want to be conveniently located to all of Southern California and its attractions. So we hope you've planned on a few extra days before or after your cruise. (And if you're traveling to join a cruise, you will want to consider arriving a day or more early; it just makes good sense—you don't have to worry about travel delays and you can begin your voyage rested.)

For those driving in, the local hotels offer economical park and cruise packages that allow you to leave your car at the hotel for the duration of your cruise and stay a night or more before and/or after your cruise.

See our list of recommended hotels in The Directory on page 12. These are the hotels that meet our standards for service and cleanliness, comfort, and quality management.

Be sure to check on park and cruise offers from our area hotels. We recommend Vagabond Inn, Terranea Resort, DoubleTree by Hilton, and Best Western Plus San Pedro Hotel & Suites

at Fort MacArthur, Los Angeles Air Force Base

LOS ANGELES WORLD CRUISE TERMINAL—Most cruises from San Pedro sail from the World Cruise Terminal. (Occasionally cruises will dock at Berth 43 at the Outer Harbor.)

Whether parking or dropping off or picking up passengers, enter the Cruise Terminal on Swinford Street and follow the signs for the appropriate berth or to enter the parking lot. You can drop off passengers and luggage at the lower levels and return to the parking lot to leave your vehicle.

There is plenty of parking for passengers who drive in to their embarkation. The first hour is free and $2 thereafter, up to a maximum of $18 per day for standard vehicles.

Or you can choose one of the park-and-cruise packages available at one of our recommended hotels. These hotels offer accommodation, parking, and transportation directly to and from the World Cruise Terminal for guests. We recommend the DoubleTree by Hilton San Pedro-Port of Los Angeles Hotel, Best Western Plus San Pedro Hotel & Suites, the Vagabond Inn, and Terranea Resort.

We strongly encourage passengers to use park and cruise packages.

Guide to Getting Around

Find your way around San Pedro—and all of LA.

There are lots of ways to get around.

The Historic Downtown is within walking distance of the San Pedro Waterfront or you can take the trolley on weekends.

The Downtown Trolley operates on weekends between the Cruise Terminal, 6th and 7th Streets, and Pacific Avenue, CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles, SS Lane Victory, and a stop at Battleship Iowa.

DASH buses operate on routes throughout the greater San Pedro area, south as far as 25th Street and west to Western Avenue.

Commuter Express line 142 has direct service to the Downtown Long Beach Transit Gallery where you can catch the Blue Line train that travels to downtown Los Angeles and connects to most rail lines that run throughout the greater Los Angeles area. Catch it at on the Waterfront or at stops along 7th Street and Gaffey Street north of 7th Street. (Note: the Blue Line is undergoing reconstruction and stops at the Rosa Parks Station. Buses are available to continue its route to Downtown Los Angeles.

Metro Transit buses operate several lines into, out of, and around San Pedro, mainly along 7th Street, Pacific Avenue, and Gaffey Street (although other streets are also served).

Connections to Metrail are available from Downtown Los Angeles's Metro Center and some buses stop at rail stations along their routes.

The Palos Verdes Transit Authority provides bus services around the Palos Verdes Peninsula, to San Pedro, and as far north and west as Redondo Beach

Metro Bike Share

Offering bike rentals (with lots of free options). Eleven bike share stations in the Harbor area.

Lime Bikes and Electric Scooters

Look for the green bikes on many corners throughout San Pedro. Use your smartphone to unlock the bike. First ride is free.
