San Pedro Holiday Traditions

And the Palos Verdes Peninsula and Wilmington, too

San Pedro loves the holidays. Everyone is welcome at these highlight events.

Spirit of San Pedro Holiday Parade

This year's parade—the 39th—will be held December 1 from 1 to 3 p.m. It's produced by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce

The parade always has lots of great participants, including the area's renowned school marching bands. And Santa Claus will ride as the grand conclusion.

Everything starts at Pacific Avenue and 13th Street and heads north to 6th Street and turns east. It concludes at 6th and Palos Verdes Streets in Downtown San Pedro. So find a good spot along the route. It's free.

Lane Victory Holiday Harbor Afloat Parade Viewing Party

SS Lane Victory, San Pedro's World War II-era hero ship, has become the go-to spot to see the Port of Los Angeles Holiday Harbor Afloat Parade of boats.

This year Lane Victory will feature a blues band, children's activities, and great food and hot chocolate. It's located near Angels Gate, the entrance to the harbor, and it's height gives great views of all the decorated boats in the parade.

There's a Coast Guard limit on the ship's occupancy, so get your tickets while they're still available at www.TheLaneVictory.org.

Candy Cane Lane in Weymouth Corners

For more than three decades, the merchants of Weymouth Corners have set up their quaint blocks as Candy Cane Lane. It's Friday, December 6 from 5 to 9 p.m. There will be many community tables, lots of activities for children, and a visit by Santa.

Candy Cane Lane is along 8th Street between Weymouth and Averill Avenues.

Celebration of the Season at Terranea

Terranea Resort is celebrating its 10th anniversary year, so it's a relatively new addition to the Palos Verdes Peninsula.

But in those 10 years, Terranea has developed a number of Traditions. And one of those is celebrating the holiday season with its annual tree lighting ceremony. This year it's on Sunday, December 8 beginning at 5 p.m. on the Terranea Terrace. You'll enjoy lively entertainment, holiday crafts for all ages, and the ambiance of California's finest coastal resort.

Bring an unwrapped toy to donate to Toys for Tots for free admission.

Victorian Christmas Celebration

Banning Museum kicks off the holiday season with its annual Victorian Christmas Celebration on Saturday, December 7 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The event is free and there's lots for everyone, including children.

Victorian Christmas at the Banning Museum has been an annual holiday tradition for more than 30 years. The Museum grounds are transformed into a Christmas Festival featuring Victorian period entertainment, walk-through tours of the festively decorated Banning Mansion, blacksmith demonstrations, refreshments, family holiday crafts, a bake sale, local food vendors, handmade crafts by area artisans, and Jolly Ol' St. Nick himself will pose for photos with the little ones in an historic carriage. One of the highlights of the festivities is a horse-drawn trolley ride to the Drum Barracks Civil War Museum, also in Wilmington.

Svetlana Bagdasaryan Exhibition Opening at the New Downtown Books & Art Gallery

Works are inspired by great artists

Downtown Books and Art will host its newest exhibition of Svetlana Bagdasaryan art-works, "Reflection," from Tuesday, December 3 through Friday, January 3 at Downtown Books & Art Gallery, 414 W 6th Street, Downtown San Pedro.

And here's the story behind her career:

Professional artists take years to obtain their degrees. Svetlana Bagdasaryan woke up one sunny morning to the sounds of her German Shepard grumbling in his sleep, took a brush, and in one year created 60 paintings. Born to the family of a physics professor and a doctor, with both her elder siblings pursuing a degree in physics, Svetlana did not consider any option other than science. However, what happened a year ago totally changed Svetlana's life and her love for catalyst reactions. Inspired now by the renaissance painter El Greco, the surrealism of Salvador Dali, the figures of Gauguin and the colors of Chagall, Svetlana Bagdasaryan has been in many exhibitions worldwide and has patrons in the U.S. and Western and Eastern Europe.

Come see her work.

Welcome Cruise Passengers

Going on a cruise? About to take a cruise? Just got off a cruise?

There is plenty to see and do in the area and San Pedro, home to the Port of Los Angeles and its World Cruise Terminal, is a great place to stay if you want to be conveniently located to all of Southern California and its attractions. So we hope you've planned on a few extra days before or after your cruise. (And if you're traveling to join a cruise, you will want to consider arriving a day or more early; it just makes good sense—you don't have to worry about travel delays and you can begin your voyage rested.)

For those driving in, the local hotels offer economical park and cruise packages that allow you to leave your car at the hotel for the duration of your cruise and stay a night or more before and/or after your cruise.

See our list of recommended hotels in The Directory on page 12. These are the hotels that meet our standards for service and cleanliness, comfort, and quality management.

Guide to Getting Around

Find your way around San Pedro—and all of LA.

There are lots of ways to get around.

The Historic Downtown is within walking distance of the San Pedro Waterfront or you can take the trolley on weekends.

The Downtown Trolley operates on weekends between the Cruise Terminal, 6th and 7th Streets, and Pacific Avenue, CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles, SS Lane Victory, and a stop at Battleship Iowa.

DASH buses operate on routes throughout the greater San Pedro area, south as far as 25th Street and west to Western Avenue.

Commuter Express line 142 has direct service to the Downtown Long Beach Transit Gallery where you can catch the Blue Line train that travels to downtown Los Angeles and connects to most rail lines that run throughout the greater Los Angeles area. Catch it at on the Waterfront or at stops along 7th Street and Gaffey Street north of 7th Street. (Note: the Blue Line is undergoing reconstruction and stops at the Rosa Parks Station. Buses are available to continue its route to Downtown Los Angeles.

Metro Transit buses operate several lines into, out of, and around San Pedro, mainly along 7th Street, Pacific Avenue, and Gaffey Street (although other streets are also served).

Connections to Metrorail are available from Downtown Los Angeles's Metro Center and some buses stop at rail stations along their routes.

The Palos Verdes Transit Authority provides bus services around the Palos Verdes Peninsula, to San Pedro, and as far north and west as Redondo Beach
