For Families

Whale watching was developed in San Pedro, it is said, by the late renown John Olguin, founder of Cabrillo Marine Aquarium. This is the time of year that Pacific gray whales make the long journey from Alaska to Baja California. And there are other species of whales to be seen, as well.

And the tradition continues with Cabrillo Whalewatch's daily voyages out of ports from the South Bay to Long Beach.

These are the best whale watching cruises because they have Whalewatch naturalists on board. These two- to three-hour boat trips are the way to see the whales in nature.

For group reservations, call 310-548-7770 and for information about daily departures and group cruises, visit www.CabrilloMarineAquarium.org.

Another great family activity sponsored by Cabrillo Marine Aquarium is its weekend tidepool walks. Marine educators lead tours of the Pt. Fermin tidepools with lots of marine life in them. The event starts with a very informative slide show in the John M. Olguin Auditorium at the aquarium. Then a naturalist takes participants out among the rocks.

It's advisable to wear shoes that won't slip on the rocks and dress appropriately for the weather.

This month the tidepool walks will take place on Saturday, February 8 from 1:30-3 p.m., on Sunday, February 9 beginning at 2:30 p.m., and on Sunday, February 23 beginning at 2 p.m.

The aquarium is at 3720 Stephen M. White Drive, Cabrillo Beach along the San Pedro Waterfront. For information, call 310-548-7562 or go online to www.CabrilloMarineAquarium.org.

Some of What We Love About San Pedro and the Peninsula

Dining

Whatever kind of dining you're looking for, San Pedro and the Peninsula have it.

A good place to start is Downtown San Pedro 7th Street Village. Over the years it's developed into the international blocks. You can try wonderful Mediterranean cuisine at Sebastian's and British and pub food at The Whale & Ale. While you're in 7th Street Village, stop in at Godmother's on the corner at Centre Street for a cocktail or beer.

Head over to 6th Street and you'll find many great selections. The best (and ones we recommend) include Conrad's Mexican Grill. (Check out the vegan menu!) And San Pedro Brewing Company is incomparable with great beer brewed on the premises (take the brewery tour on Fridays at 5 p.m.), wonderful food, and sports all the time. Sacred Grounds next to the Warner Grand Theatre, is a true coffee house that also offers pastries, sandwiches, and salads.

Just around the corner is San Pedro Café on Pacific Avenue with a wonderful menu of breakfast and lunch with dinner Thursday through Sunday evenings. Big portions, fresh ingredients and even Croatian specialties. Two blocks up is a little bit of Italian heaven. Raffaello Ristorante at the corner of 4th Street and Pacific Avenue has great Italian specialties with wonderful pasta, meat, and seafood. Legendary good food and a great place for groups.

If you want great diner food, Happy Diner on Centre Street has your choices and Mexican dishes, too. There's also Happy Diner 2 in Northwest San Pedro with the identical menu. And Happy Deli has the very best sandwiches in town (breakfast, too). If you're in Northwest San Pedro, drop into The Original Las Brisas for amazing regional Mexican food.

Want waterfront dining? Try the Catalina Bistro & Express Grill at Berth 95 at the Catalina Express Terminal. Or enjoy 22nd Street Landing Seafood Grill & Bar for the very best seafood in Southern California. Just across the street from the Waterfront is the Grinder on Harbor Blvd. that reinvented the coffee shop with great meals early to late (wine and beer, too). The DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel has very nice maria views from its restaurant and patio.

If you're looking for dining on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, Tanawin Thai Bistro has authentic food right next door to San Pedro. And Terranea Resort offers eight different dining venues with a whole variety of great food with local sourcing.

And if you'd like to try something exotic, try Babouch Moroccan Restaurant on Gaffey Street. Well, maybe the belly dancing is exotic. The food is healthy and wonderful.

GREAT VIEWS AND FOOD—22nd Street Landing is renowned for its marina views and its wonderful food.

Arts

You won't beat the Warner Grand Theatre as a venue for artistic performances. This Art Deco movie palace really is grand. It's the place for films, stage plays, ballet, opera, and much more. Located in historic Downtown San Pedro.

The San Pedro Art Association sets the standard for the area. This organization with historic roots is active and vital, bringing art to the community. It has a multi-artist gallery at CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles, exhibits at area farmers markets, sponsors art and craft shows, and much more. One of its big events is the Harbor Wide All Grades Student Art Competition and Exhibition.

Our Creations in Downtown San Pedro has been the go-to spot for craft and wedding supplies for nearly 30 years. It's also known as the Dia de Los Muertos headquarters in the region. In recent years it has become a great place to learn to paint. And the painting classes are expanding. Drop in for some great deals as the supplies are cleared out to make more room for paintings.

Mario Mirkovich is known as one of the finest artists in Southern California. And as one of the best painters of scenes from the region. And he's an international sensation, having started out in Croatia. Today, he is sharing his skill and knowledge with new generations of painters to teach them the very best techniques. Mario's Art Gallery showcases his beautiful works and Mario also offers painting classes.

Violet Parkhurst was a greatly loved painter. And her legacy lives on at Parkhurst Galleries in Downtown San Pedro. You'll find many of her works on display, as well as newer artists that include Cao Yong. It offers Painting With the Masters, a series of classes that teach new artists, as well as experienced painters to become masters themselves. The gallery also does appraisal services for art.

Visit

San Pedro, California Where Art Begins

Outdoors & The Ocean

Let's start with Cabrillo Marine Aquarium. This wonderful institution is a research aquarium that makes everything approachable and understandable, all while doing important science. It offers events for the whole family. We're so proud of our great aquarium. (And it's got great architecture designed by the renowned Frank Gehry. A must-see.

San Pedro loves its ocean. And there are many ways to get out on the water.

One of the most fun is with the Los Angeles Maritime Institute's (LAMI) tall ships, the Exy Johnson, Irving Johnson, and soon the Swift of Ipswich (the ship that was Jimmy Cagney's personal yacht and is now undergoing restoration). LAMI offers its TopSail youth leadership sail training program plus lots of sailings for the community.

Don't know how to sail? No problem. Los Angeles Yacht Club offers American Sailing Association certified lessons for beginners and those with experience. And its Women on Water program is a friendly and safe environment to get women out on the water.

The Palos Verdes Land Conservancy (PVPLC) has preserved more than 1,600 acres of natural land over its 32 years in existence. But it's not just preserved land; PVPLC offers a wide range of programs that get people into nature.

Welcome Cruise Passengers

Going on a cruise? About to take a cruise? Just got off a cruise?

There is plenty to see and do in the area and San Pedro, home to the Port of Los Angeles and its World Cruise Terminal, is a great place to stay if you want to be conveniently located to all of Southern California and its attractions. So we hope you've planned on a few extra days before or after your cruise. (And if you're traveling to join a cruise, you will want to consider arriving a day or more early; it just makes good sense—you don't have to worry about travel delays and you can begin your voyage rested.)

For those driving in, the local hotels offer economical park and cruise packages that allow you to leave your car at the hotel for the duration of your cruise and stay a night or more before and/or after your cruise.

See our list of recommended hotels in The Directory on page 12. These are the hotels that meet our standards for service and cleanliness, comfort, and quality management.

Be sure to check on park and cruise offers from our area hotels.
We recommend Vagabond Inn, Terranea Resort, DoubleTree by Hilton, and Best Western Plus San Pedro Hotel & Suites

LOS ANGELES WORLD CRUISE TERMINAL—Most cruises from San Pedro sail from the World Cruise Terminal. (Occasionally cruises will dock at Berth 43 at the Outer Harbor.)

Whether parking or dropping off or picking up passengers, enter the Cruise Terminal on Swinford Street and follow the signs for the appropriate berth or to enter the parking lot. You can drop off passengers and luggage at the lower levels and return to the parking lot to leave your vehicle.

There is plenty of parking for passengers who drive in to their embarkation. The first hour is free and $2 thereafter, up to a maximum of $18 per day for standard vehicles.

Or you can choose one of the park-and-cruise packages available at one of our recommended hotels. These hotels offer accommodation, parking, and transportation directly to and from the World Cruise Terminal for guests. We recommend the DoubleTree by Hilton San Pedro-Port of Los Angeles Hotel, Best Western Plus San Pedro Hotel & Suites, the Vagabond Inn, and Terranea Resort.

Guide to Getting Around

Find your way around San Pedro—and all of LA.

There are lots of ways to get around.

The Historic Downtown is within walking distance of the San Pedro Waterfront or you can take the trolley on weekends.

The Downtown Trolley operates on weekends between the Cruise Terminal, 6th and 7th Streets, and Pacific Avenue, CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles, SS Lane Victory, and a stop at Battleship Iowa.

DASH buses operate on routes throughout the greater San Pedro area, south as far as 25th Street and west to Western Avenue.

Commuter Express line 142 has direct service to the Downtown Long Beach Transit Gallery where you can catch the Blue Line train that travels to downtown Los Angeles and connects to most rail lines that run throughout the greater Los Angeles area. Catch it at on the Waterfront or at stops along 7th Street and Gaffey Street north of 7th Street. (Note: the Blue Line is undergoing reconstruction and stops at the Rosa Parks Station. Buses are available to continue its route to Downtown Los Angeles.

Metro Transit buses operate several lines into, out of, and around San Pedro, mainly along 7th Street, Pacific Avenue, and Gaffey Street (although other streets are also served).

Connections to Metrail are available from Downtown Los Angeles's Metro Center and some buses stop at rail stations along their routes.

The Palos Verdes Transit Authority provides bus services around the Palos Verdes Peninsula, to San Pedro, and as far north and west as Redondo Beach
