Discover This Month

Whale Watching

Whale watching season kicked off at the end of December and continues through the middle of April.

Cabrillo Marine Aquarium offers whale watching voyages from a number of ports with naturalists on board to explain about the big mammals, mostly California gray whales, and how they migrate between arctic waters and a gulf in Mexico every year. It's thrilling to see the animals breach or even just swim by.

And there were sightings off Pt. Vicenta on the Palos Verdes Peninsula days before Christmas and before the start of the season. So it's promising to be a year when you get to see a lot of whales.

The whale watching trips last two to three hours. Group reservations at 310-548-7770 and you can find ticket information online at www.CabrilloMarineAquarium.org.

p.m. through February 8 and Sunday shows on February 2 and 9 at 2 p.m. Information and reservations are available from Little Fish Theatre, 777 S. Centre Street, Downtown San Pedro. 424-203-4707. www.LittleFishTheatre.org.

For Families

The Cabrillo Beach Polar Bear Swim is a great tradition and families are very welcome. It gets started at 11:30 a.m. with the first jump into the water at noon. There will be the crowning of new King & Queen of the Polar Bears and coffee, hot cocoa, cupcakes, and cookies will be served. It takes place at Cabrillo Beach, 3720 Stephen M. White Drive on the San Pedro Waterfront. For information, call 310-548-7554 or go online to www.CabrilloBeachPolarBears.com.

The SS Lane Victory is a great place to show young people about real patriotism. It's a World War II-era merchant vessel that served through the Vietnam War. And it's a working ship, providing training. It's open for tours most days (except when training or filming are taking place) and has two museums that explain the heroic history of the United States Merchant Marine, Los Angeles Harbor, and other maritime-related topics.

Much of the ship is exactly as it was during its days of service on the water and you can find out what the life of a merchant mariner was like. They suffered the greatest number of casualties by proportion of any service during World War II. SS Lane Victory is at Berth 49, 3011 Miner Street on the San Pedro Waterfront. Get more information at www.TheLaneVictory.org.

Food!

The San Pedro and Palos Verdes Peninsula have great farmers markets, where you can find produce, specialty items, flowers, and fun.

The Palos Verdes Farmers Market is held every Sunday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Peninsula High School, 27118 Silver Spur Road in Rolling Hills Estates on the Peninsula. Sales support the Palos Verdes Peninsula School District.

Every Tuesday is the Wilmington Certified Farmer's Market from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. with fresh and hot food, farm produce and locally produced goods. It's held at Providence Little Company of Mary Wellness & Activity Center, 470 N. Hawaiian Avenue in Wilmington.

Every Friday the Downtown San Pedro Certified Farmers Market opens from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The vendors offer fresh produce, live entertainment, artisan food and products. It's sponsored by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce and is held on 6th Street, between Pacific Avenue and Mesa Street, Downtown San Pedro. For information, visit www.SanPedroChamber.com.

Catalina Island Is About an Hour Away from San Pedro

And it's a world apart

Catalina Island is the stuff of lore. A Mediterranean retreat just off the San Pedro coast. Scenic wildlife still in their natural habitats. The romantic Casino. And so much more.

And it's all real. Thanks to a century of conservation work, Catalina is very much an unspoiled oasis.

But it also offers something for virtually every travel interest.

There's plenty of nature and adventure. And plenty of relaxing and good times.

Getting There Can Be Half the Fun

Catalina Express offers fast and comfortable boats with daily departures from San Pedro, Long Beach, and Dana Point.

The boats feature main decks with comfortable airline-style seating, overhead storage compartments, large viewing windows, and accommodations for disabled passengers.

The upper deck features a Commodore Lounge offering priority check-in and boarding, upgraded reclining leather-trimmed seats, and beverage and snack service included in the $15 additional price each way.

Catalina Express boats arrive at the line's dedicated terminal right on the edge of Avalon, the city on the island. So it's just a convenient walk or golf cart ride into Avalon and all the hotels, dining, and activities. Only a very few cars are allowed on Catalina Island, so traffic is not an issue.

Its schedule changes with the seasons, so you always need to check its website (www.CatalinaExpress.com) for the current sailings.

And did you know that Catalina Island is a great place for groups and meetings?

It's got outstanding hotel properties that feature meeting services. And Catalina Express offers group rates, as do many hotels.

Find Your Adventure

How about parasailing? Float through the sky and then splash into the Pacific Ocean.

Diving has always been popular on the island with its massive kelp forests to explore among its amazing ecosystem of natural wonders. Go snorkeling or scuba diving.

Maybe you like camping. It's a great way to get close the nature and Catalina has a variety of campgrounds all around the island.

Make your camping experience a part of a hike across the trans-Catalina trail. From one side of the island to the other, and all through natural habitat.

Hummer and Jeep tours are very popular. They take you into the island interior and all the nature on view.

You might want to try stand-up paddle boarding that's both great exercise and lots of fun (with a pretty good chance of getting wet).

And one of the most popular adventure attractions on Catalina is the zipline. It takes you through the island's canyons and is pure excitement.

Fun for Families

Families will find plenty to do on Catalina Island from miniature golf, hiking, and biking, to the outstanding museums. The beaches are favorite family destinations. And there's a rock climbing wall at Descanso Beach Club.

Children generally like all the adventures that are available on the island. You might inquire which ones can be scaled to the needs of smaller visitors.

The Catalina Island Museum offers outstanding art and history exhibitions, music and dance performances, lectures by guest speakers from all over the world, and the finest in silent, documentary and international film.

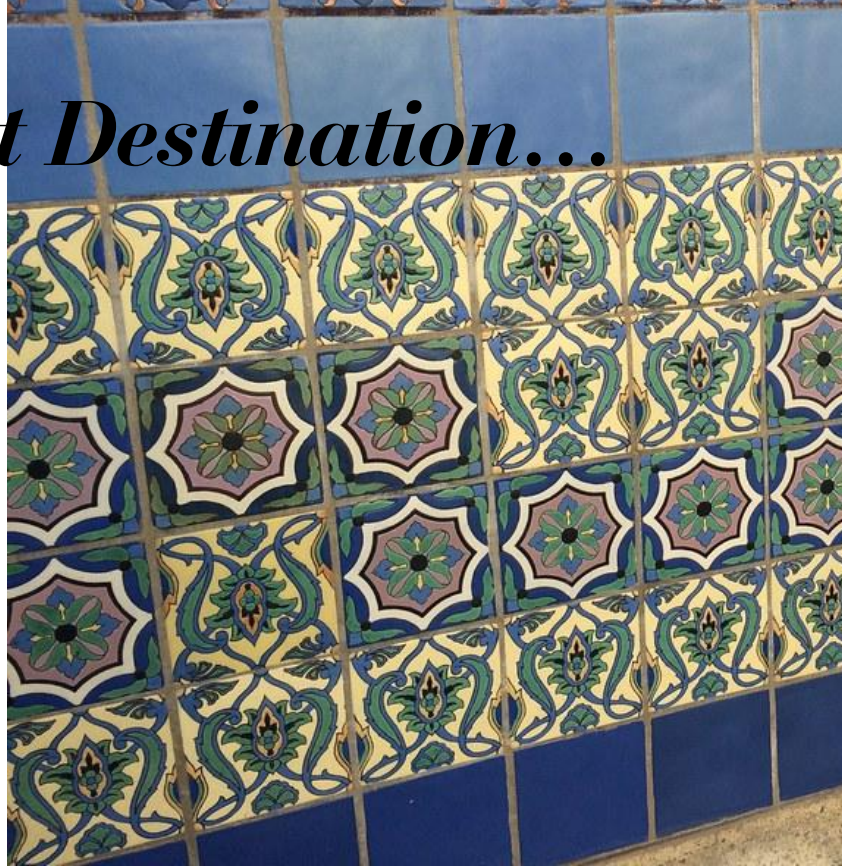

The museum has both permanent and temporary exhibits. The facility itself is a work of art.

The Museum Store has the best selection of books and gift items related to Santa Catalina Island history. You will find one-of-a-kind vintage souvenirs, rare pottery, Catalina tile, Chicago Cubs merchandise, and numerous custom-made products with images from its extensive collection of historical photographs, brochures, and luggage stickers.

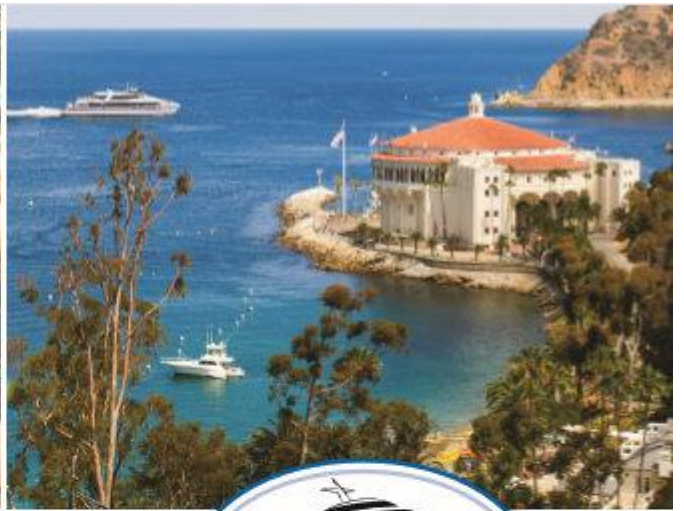

The museum is open daily, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. And it has a special event on the first Friday evening of every month.

Tours

Tours have been long time favorites for visitors to Catalina Island. And it seems like the islanders have figured out that visitors love all kinds of tours. You'll find an amazing array of tours that will appeal to every interest. And they're not just tours with a guide pointing out interesting spots. These can be

It's located at the top of the Avalon Canyon Road and has a range of native plants from both Catalina Island the Channel Islands, as well as a collection of succulents. It was built in 1934 to honor William Wrigley, who developed the island.

You can also see a lot of Catalina tile used in the construction.

Catalina is famous for its flying fish. You can take a boat out to see them. You'll be amazed.

There are also tours of the renowned Catalina Island Casino. It's not a gambling casino; it's a Moorish-style gathering place. And in the early days it was where the first talking motion pictures were shown. It's also a great place to dance on the world's largest dance floor.

Take a look at www.CatalinaChamber.com and you'll find Catalina has tours to fit a really wide range of interests.

Welcome Cruise Passengers

Going on a cruise? About to take a cruise? Just got off a cruise?

There is plenty to see and do in the area and San Pedro, home to the Port of Los Angeles and its World Cruise Terminal, is a great place to stay if you want to be conveniently located to all of Southern California and its attractions. So we hope you've planned on a few extra days before or after your cruise. (And if you're traveling to join a cruise, you will want to consider arriving a day or more early; it just makes good sense—you don't have to worry about travel delays and you can begin your voyage rested.)

For those driving in, the local hotels offer economical park and cruise packages that allow you to leave your car at the hotel for the duration of your cruise and stay a night or more before and/or after your cruise.

See our list of recommended hotels in The Directory on page 12. These are the hotels that meet our standards for service and cleanliness, comfort, and quality management.

Be sure to check on park and cruise offers from our area hotels. We recommend Vagabond Inn, Terranea Resort, DoubleTree by Hilton, and Best Western Plus San Pedro Hotel & Suites

LOS ANGELES WORLD CRUISE TERMINAL—Most cruises from San Pedro sail from the World Cruise Terminal. (Occasionally cruises will dock at Berth 43 at the Outer Harbor.)

Whether parking or dropping off or picking up passengers, enter the Cruise Terminal on Swinford Street and follow the signs for the appropriate berth or to enter the parking lot. You can drop off passengers and luggage at the lower levels and return to the parking lot to leave your vehicle.

There is plenty of parking for passengers who drive in to their embarkation. The first hour is free and $2 thereafter, up to a maximum of $18 per day for standard vehicles.

Or you can choose one of the park-and-cruise packages available at one of our recommended hotels. These hotels offer accommodation, parking, and transportation directly to and from the World Cruise Terminal for guests. We recommend the DoubleTree by Hilton San Pedro-Port of Los Angeles Hotel, Best Western Plus San Pedro Hotel & Suites, the Vagabond Inn, and Terranea Resort.

Guide to Getting Around

Find your way around San Pedro—and all of LA.

There are lots of ways to get around.

The Historic Downtown is within walking distance of the San Pedro Waterfront or you can take the trolley on weekends.

The Downtown Trolley operates on weekends between the Cruise Terminal, 6th and 7th Streets, and Pacific Avenue, CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles, SS Lane Victory, and a stop at Battleship Iowa.

DASH buses operate on routes throughout the greater San Pedro area, south as far as 25th Street and west to Western Avenue.

Commuter Express line 142 has direct service to the Downtown Long Beach Transit Gallery where you can catch the Blue Line train that travels to downtown Los Angeles and connects to most rail lines that run throughout the greater Los Angeles area. Catch it at on the Waterfront or at stops along 7th Street and Gaffey Street north of 7th Street. (Note: the Blue Line is undergoing reconstruction and stops at the Rosa Parks Station. Buses are available to continue its route to Downtown Los Angeles.

Metro Transit buses operate several lines into, out of, and around San Pedro, mainly along 7th Street, Pacific Avenue, and Gaffey Street (although other streets are also served).

Connections to Metrail are available from Downtown Los Angeles's Metro Center and some buses stop at rail stations along their routes.

The Palos Verdes Transit Authority provides bus services around the Palos Verdes Peninsula, to San Pedro, and as far north and west as Redondo Beach
